Who is a Refugee?

A refugee is a person forced to flee his or her country and is unable to return due to persecution based on religion, race, nationality, political opinion or membership in a particular social group. Most refugees are women and children. There are 20,000,000 refugees in the world.

Refugee Resettlement in Utah

- Utah resettles about 1,150 refugees every year; this year the majority will be coming from Burma, Iraq, Somalia and Congo, as well as some from Syria.
- 60,000 refugees from more than 20 countries currently live in Utah.
- 5,000–10,000 continue to need assistance of some kind, especially in job upgrades.
